

A little useful publicity seems to have done its work. The "amalgamation of nations" has shrivelled and drifted into the nebulous and here along with the League of Nations. The conference gentlemen have probably been told by President Harding that he does not propose, under another name, to build up a league so emphatically resuscitated only a year ago.

IRISH PAMPHLET BARRED BY CURLEY

Distribution at Rallies of Tract
Condemning the League
Is Stopped

James M. Curley and his political lieutenants have started a campaign to check off distribution at Curley Mayoralty rallies of a pamphlet bearing on the Irish question.

The pamphlet consists of statements by leading Irishmen condemning the League of Nations, which Curley, after denouncing, finally induced in the last national campaign.

His chairman, sensing that it might be taken as a criticism of Curley, have stopped distribution of the pamphlet wherever possible.

USES FINIS.
One young man distributing the pamphlet was struck on the jaw by a Curley man in Charlestown.

At the Curley rally in the Tremont Theatre, both the candidate for mayor and his brother John took steps to stop the passing out of the little booklet.

Curley, who came out for Governor James M. Cox and his party of Nationalists, in the last election, was not always a League of Nations man. Not long before the last national election he indulged in the following eloquent flight of fancy at a meeting of Irish sympathizers:

"May my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, and my right arm wither if I ever found supporting the League of Nations. And I hereby serve notice on President Wilson and the Democratic party that I will not vote the Democratic ticket unless they repudiate the League of Nations."

MADE SUDDEN SHIFT.
Notwithstanding which, almost on the eve of the national election, Curley suddenly came out for James M. Cox of Ohio, standard bearer of the Wilson-dominated Democratic party, and help in the Wilson policies, including the League of Nations in its entirety.

This sudden change of face on the part of Curley left a bad taste in the mouths of many of his constituents of Irish blood.

It is senselessness over this, perhaps, which incited Curley now to object to distribution of a pamphlet containing statements by President Edmond de Valera of the Irish Republic, Harry J. Boland, of Dail Eireann, Frank P. Walsh, John P. Harrigan, president of the Massachusetts branch, A. A. R. L. R. Daniel, T. O'Connell, member of the National Council, Friends of Irish Freedom, and others.

One and all these men are against the League of Nations. They are against it before Irish societies and other societies, and no societies at all they are against it in fair weather and foul, at election time as well as before and after.

Many of those attending the Curley rallies feel the same about it, and as the Curley inner ring of rough-and-ready elements, who try to run an anti-rally, see that the little pamphlet is not circulated.

LIEUT.-GOV. FULLER

OPENS G. O. P. BAZAAR

The arms conference in Washington will produce an Association of Nations, which will be binding even though it is centered together by ties of human understanding, friendship and brotherhood rather than by legal bonds, declared Lieutenant Governor William T. Fuller in a speech at the opening of the G. O. P. Bazaar at the Copple-Paine.

The Lieutenant Governor asserted that the women voters of the country have shown that they are a force to be reckoned with, adding that "we need the idealism, the humanitarianism of women to balance the materialism and commercialism of men."

FORD AND EDISON TO TALK WITH SIMS

Detroit, Dec. 7.—Admiral William S. Sims, who came here yesterday to address the House of the American Revolution, was invited to meet Henry Ford and Thomas A. Edison today. Ford, returning to Detroit from his inspection of the muscle shoals project in Alabama, requested the admiral to remain over and confer with Edison and himself. Ford's purpose generally was believed to discuss the recently expressed desire to purchase naval vessels that may be discarded.

13 BODIES FOUND AFTER PRUSSIAN EXPLOSION

Berlin, Dec. 7 (By the Associated Press).—The bodies of only thirteen of the more than one hundred persons killed in the explosion, yesterday at the Nobel Dynamite Works at Scharnhorst, Rhenish Prussia, have been recovered, according to the latest reports received here. The number of injured has not been ascertained. The explosion, which occurred in an oil tank, destroyed the greater part of the factory.

A Letter From Santa To All Good Little Girls and Boys of New England

Where QUALITY as well as Price determines Value

From Toyland, Jordan Marsh Company

My dear Children—
Christmas time is justime for all young folks and once again I am coming to reward all little girls and boys who have been good.
All summer long I have been busy making many thousands of new toys in my many secret workshops and Oh what fun I've had thinking of all the children I will make happy.
My reindeer, who will speed over the rooftops on Christmas Eve, have been up in Greenland and Sumatra and have received good care under Walrus and Tomboy's trusty Eskimo assistants, so they will be able to take me to the chimneys of all your cheerful homes.
Now, my dear little children, come into my Toyland Headquarters at Jordan Marsh Company's where I will greet you personally.
And remember the night before Christmas to hang up your biggest stocking and don't peek all night long. Santa hopes and believes this will be the merriest Christmas you have ever known.
Santa.
I'm as fat as ever, with thick cheeks still rosy and whiskers as white and plentiful as when you saw me last.

CECILIA SOCIETY IN BERLIOZ'S 'DAMNATION'

Great Faust Choral Work Remarkably Sung Under Jacchia's Direction

The reorganization and rejuvenated Cecilia Society, now under the baton of Agathe Jacchia, gave a remarkable performance last night of Berlioz's "Damnation of Faust," the great dramatic work which was so brilliantly performed at the concert last season which introduced Jacchia as conductor.

The soloists last night were Marcelle Craft, soprano, Paul Alban, tenor, Henri Scott, bass, with Herbert W. Smith and Frank Hughes in the minor roles.

Miss Craft has never been heard here in opera although she had a remarkable career in German opera houses. She still sings with good tone and great skill. Alban is a tenor of great attainments and Henri Scott a polished basso. The soloists gave great satisfaction.

The Cecilia Chorus is in better shape than in years. Its female voices are numerous and capable of fine tonal effects. The tenors and basses might be more numerous but sang very effectively.

The determination of the management to reserve for Boston this one very popular society is most commendable and it is to be regretted that there was not a larger attendance.

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

By FRIEDA DAVIS

SPEAKING OF THE SHOWING OF

"On-Hand-Quick Wallingford" at the Old South Theatre this week calls to mind the story of Sam Hardy, the comedian, who plays the role of Wallingford. At the studio he became so steeped in his part that he developed Wallingford tendencies of self-overestimation.

He was called to the phone at the Lumber Club a few days ago and said, "Hello, Mr. Hardy. This is a paper. Tell me what you think of Miss Langdon, the French tennis player."

"I don't know anything about Miss Langdon," Hardy replied calmly, "but I will tell you something. Wallingford is the best actor I ever saw. Don't fail to see it!"

"Yes, who are you?" asked the reporter.

"Oh, I thought you were Hardy, the tennis player, but I'll use your statement anyway."

Natalina's Plans Announced

Long to New York after a visit to Hollywood to confer with her star, Miss Natalina, was fraught with interest. Is there a man with soul so dead that he has no interest in what this Russian star is going to do?

Natalina, Mr. Long declares, has no intention of returning to the stage yet. She plans to devote the entire coming year to films. After "The Lion's House," on which she is now working, is finished, she will make "Regina," by Hermann Sudermann. Later it is probable that she will turn her attention to Wasserman's book, "The World Within."

Wife's Year Book

FOR those who are interested in the "house" story of the popular, I announce that the 1921 model of Wife's Year Book has been published with new illustrations and references of the movies and its modern in every phase of the industry.

Film Star Wins Allowance
CATHARINE CURTIS, the motion picture star and independent producer, who is the plaintiff in the suit for divorce from her husband, Ferris C. Myers, obtained the other day an award of $100 a month alimony.

Mr. Myers, the defendant, has fought this case for two years in the Schemmick, N. Y. court, claiming that he is ill with tuberculosis and cannot pay the alimony. He charges that Miss Curtis is extravagant. The court, however, found it advisable to award the money.

Boston Wins!
THOSE of the motion picture fans who have watched in the Pan-ous Players-Lasky productions this year can leave with gratitude to the sales force of that organization in this city for they won the annual Paramount prize for the exchange making the most sales. This includes the entire country.

Paramount pictures stand high throughout the country—almost throughout the world—for the standard by which the best talent in players, directors, screenwriters, and authors are judged constantly on the lookout for novelty in development.

The sales force for all New England met for a celebration of the prize winning last week.

'TIT FOR TAT' IS BRILLIANT AT GAYETY

Top Notch Burlesque Show
Reveals Spectacular Effects,
Mirth and Music

Spectacular scenic effects, bright costumes and a generous amount of music and dancing, and a splendidly funny plot featured Joe Harris's new burlesque production, "Tit for Tat," at the Gayety Theatre this week.

Boston has Boston burlesque lovers seen a pair of entertainers more talented as dancers and comedians than Helen Spencer and George Kido. This team of famous performers, headed a large and brilliant cast in presenting a show that topped with mirth, scenic splendor and fascinating music.

The big feature of the show is a sketch entitled "Ridiculous to the Extreme." The fun never lags in this sketch, and it can truly be described

IRISH PLAYER OWNS FAMOUS BAGPIPES

Thích McDougal, now playing at the National Theatre in "A Night in Ireland," has what he considers the most famous bagpipes in the United States. He received the pipes from the musical society of Dublin, and they were once carried by a blind piper, who travelled through Ireland, giving concerts. The Irish piper spent a lifetime saving the money to buy this set and died after purchasing them.

Mr. McDougal says, "That Irish music has always aroused and intensified the Irish love for freedom and hatred of oppression and the English have always recognized that factor." He added: "That the English sought to deprive the people of Ireland of this means of expressing their national pride."

is a burlesque show within a burlesque show. Every role is admirably filled in "Tit for Tat," the cast including Jean O'Donnell, Teddy O'Leary, Edna Wilson, Anna O'Donnell, Jimmie O'Sullivan, Shino and Nery.

The chorus is composed of thirty girls, graceful dancers and gifted comedians, who exhibit striking costumes.

ARRESTED, GAVE NAME OF DORCHESTER GIRL

COUGHS, COLDS AND CATARRH

It is then that a dependable remedy is needed and appreciated. For it isn't safe to neglect a cold. The sensitive membranes make it easy to take more cold. The cough grows worse, more annoying. Perhaps you try this or that remedy without results and meanwhile the condition is becoming one of chronic catarrhal stagnation. Guard yourself against such troubles by having a suitable remedy handy.

THOUSANDS DEPEND UPON AND ENDORSE
PE-RU-NA

Mrs. MARTHA COMFORT, Liberal, Mo., says: "Teaspoonful comes every hour soon checks a cold and relieves a cough. I have used Pe-ru-na for thirty years."

Mr. W. R. HARTMAN, Danbury, N. C., says: "Pe-ru-na is the best medicine on earth for colds and catarrh. It saved my life several times."

Pe-ru-na is just as good a medicine today as it was fifty years ago when our fathers and grandfathers adopted it as the best of all safe guards to the family health. Dr. Hartman's famous remedy should be in every home because it fills all the requirements for a reliable emergency medicine.

REJUVENATED MONKEY GLAND PATIENT, 65, SEEKS YOUNG WIFE

IT'S TIME to Take a Powder! Germany is making hooch powder and sandin' 'em here. Wines are concentrated into powder and sifted into a little water. Then wash your step. Cypil a Perot, dancer, says it's good. (A. W.)

LET'S KISS and Makeup! We don't know how strong Vassar girls are for the former, but they're hooch for making up—for the latter, at least. Charlie and Doug are rounding into shape. (F.)

MORE PAINT! Muddy of the bistro fashion has taken to painting decorations on her silver stockings. She thinks it's smart. Behold a specimen of the art. (M. W.)

I'VE Attended One of His Blows! Christopher Passant blows things higher than the worst profane—with dynamite. Most expert blaster in N. Y. Seen at it 22 years. Has used enough explosive to blow up Boston. (A.)

SHE WINS! Miss Margaret Lamorey of Newburyport is winner of a prize of $5 as a Pretty Maid. (A. W.)

HITS 'IM! Sir John J. Baddley, 78, new Lord-Mayor of London, is a genuine cockney, having been born, lived and worked for many years within the sound of the "Bow Bells." Head of a printing house. (Int.)

STUCK UP! Miss Jacque Logan of California has found another use for Red Cross socks. Says they make ideal beauty marks. (U. & U.)

RUTH PAGE, society girl dancer, well known to Boston folk, is giving a series of dances in aid of worthy charitable organizations. Formerly a Parisian's pupil. Shown here in a ballet dance pose. (F.)

CHASE ME, Girls I'm Unkissed, Jack Weinberger, elected president of Party League of N. Y. University. He is the only unkissed man in the convocation class. (U.)

WE KNOW All About the Camel Walk, but the Camel Kiss is a New One! The Arab drivers of these faithful animals grow very fond of them and are frequently seen with them for days at a time on the great Sahara. When they walk in pet they stick some sort of food in their mouths and the animal shows the greatest gentleness in getting the reward. (G.)

SHE'S WEARING A SKIRT—but You Can't See It! This skating combination garment, of knitted wool, can be transformed from a pair of knickers to a street skirt. The collar and hem are striped to match the knicker-skirt. (U. & U.)

A LITTLE BIG CHAP! You are now gazing at Datu Panglima Diki Diki head More chief of the island of Uluu, near Jolo, southern Philippines. The Datu, who is also a priest, is 37 years old and weighs but 23 pounds. He is just 32 in. tall. (W. W.)

WALKING THE CHALKLINE! Christmas shoppers in Chicago are forced to walk on the right side of a line drawn on the west side of State street, eliminating confusion and preventing congestion of the thoroughfare. The line has to be painted daily. Might try this on Tremont St. (U. & U.)

GOOD Morning, Captain! Edna Fittie is the sergeant leader of New York's new women police. They are now doing special traffic duty. (U. & U.)

J. "TADY" ROCHE 68, of Salsford, Long Harbor, Staten Island, has new monkey glands and now he's remanent. He is looking for a young bride. Says he feels like 35. (U. & U.)

MELTON WOULD REVISE TAXES DOWNWARD

Still Favors the Deferment of Soldiers' Bonus; Would Fund Foreign Loans

By Associated Press
Washington, Dec. 7.—Further revision of the tax laws with a reduction of the maximum income tax rate to 20 or 25 per cent and adjustment of the rates on business profits and estates is suggested by Secretary Mellon in his first annual report, transmitted today to Congress.

The secretary also announced that the treasury policy with respect to the sale of the public debt is unchanged and urges prompt funding of the public debt. He also stated that the treasury is in a position to meet the outstanding needs of the government and that it is not necessary to issue new bonds.

London, Dec. 7.—David Lloyd George observed his fifth anniversary as British Premier today. The suggestion has been made that royal honors be conferred upon the Premier in the King's New Year list.

The only decoration Lloyd George has accepted is the Order of Merit, which he terms is "the only title that will ever mean anything."

The committee in executive session also discussed further China requests for removal of foreign troops and for abandonment of leased territory in China, but deferred action on these questions until tomorrow.

Every Child in New England Should See Our Wonderful Toy World

There is nothing to compare with it in Boston

It is a veritable fairland of joy for youngsters. This year there are more wonders than ever—the new "White City," a miniature amusement resort with its giant scenic railways, merry-go-rounds, ferris wheel, old mill, etc., all lighted and operated by electricity; a wonderful display of mechanical and electrical trains; an elevated railway in operation; a complete doll village with houses and trolleys, autos and pedestrians passing along the streets; a Humpty-Dumpty circus, lots of funny animals that laugh and blink their eyes, and the largest assortment of popular priced toys, dolls and games in the city.

Because of the large crowds that are coming to Toy World every day, we urge mothers to bring the children in as early in the day as possible.

SHEVLIN GIVES DOYLE HIS TERMS FOR BOUT; MUST POST CASH

By JACK CONWAY.

Paul Shevlin, speaking through Billy Henderson, his manager, has finally declared he is ready to battle Paul Doyle for the New England welterweight championship. Doyle's persistent methods have stirred the fighting qualities of the Roxbury man, who makes it very plain that Tony Palazzo's protégé can secure ring action in the event he means business.

Doyle's statement at a press conference in New York City, however, is not the only one. Doyle's manager, Billy Henderson, also has a statement to make. He says that Doyle is not only ready to fight Shevlin, but also to fight any other champion who will accept his terms. It's Proper

And timely to be busy about Christmas purchases. But, like "time and tide," which "wait for no man," "Wear and Tear" are unobtainable. They are no respecters of the holidays. "Wear and Tear" will show up your suit any old time. These twins probably are with you now. Look at your coat between the shoulders and at the elbows; at the seat of the trousers, or at some of the other vital places where suits give out first.

And here you are at the height of the season—when you see more people and more people see you, probably, than at any other time of the year. Just the time when the suit, for example, should be at its best. And just the time when stores generally are not apt to have anything out of the ordinary in men's suits.

Well, as one popular novelist puts it, "Cheerio! Here's an exception. We have something out of the ordinary—something big. That's the 'why' of it! Its announcement right in the middle of all the Christmas news."

Here it is—unexpectedly—and hoisted down to the main facts.

(Please keep in mind that since October, 1916—that is, for more than five years—have only a few of our advertisements of former prices. That helps to keep us exaggerated and to make our advertising trustworthy.)

Cut It Out

He tried to relieve the Elevated of its taxes and said that the people of Boston were cheating the Elevated by hundreds of thousands in free transfers. His froth is all for the people. His acts are all for the corporations.

asked which he preferred, that he preferred to relieve the Elevated of its taxes, but that it amounted to the same thing, that either way would come out of the pockets of the people, as indeed it would.

CURLEY DENOUNCING THE FIGHT TO MAKE ELECTRIC LIGHTING TRUST
REDUCE ITS CHARGES SO THAT EVERY HOME MAY HAVE ELEC-TRICITY

Today, of the stump, this same Curley is doing exactly what we expected him to do. He is denouncing the case which was brought by the Boston American and the City of Boston are trying against the Electric Light Company, for the purpose of reducing its charges to the people of Boston so that everybody may have in their homes electric lighting just as they have in Cleveland. The lighting plant owned by the City of Cleveland sells electricity for three cents. The private plant which Mr. Curley serves sells it in Boston for eleven and one-half cents. If it were sold in Boston for three cents, there is nobody in Boston who could not afford to have electricity. They could not afford to be without it in their homes, it is so clean, and bright, and so much more healthful than any other form of lighting which consumes the fresh air in the rooms. The Boston Edison Company charges the highest rate in America for lighting your homes. The Boston Edison Company is the only one that charges a high price and Mr. Curley, who is being supported by two of the lobbyists of this Edison Lighting Company, is denouncing the man engaged in the fight to reduce the lightning rates.

Extension of 5-Cent Fares

Almost a Quarter of the Persons Riding on Boston Elevated
Now Pay Only a Nickel

Extension of 5-Cent Fares

Almost a Quarter of the Persons Riding on Boston Elevated
Now Pay Only a Nickel

The public managers of the Boston Elevated announce another extension of the five-cent fare zone. It includes the cars traveling on Beacon street between the Reservoir and the Boston-Brookline-bound carlins. It also includes the lines which enter Harvard square, Cambridge, the Western avenue line, the River street line, the Brookline street line, the Hampshire street line, the Union square line and the Massachusetts avenue line.

The other day, announcement was made by the public managers of the Bay State line that they had put into effect the five-cent fare in Fall River.

On the Boston line the public trustees have within the last year increased the zones in which a five-cent fare is charged, until now, by the latest extension, almost a quarter of those riding on the Elevated are riding for a nickel. After the first of the year the public managers hope to make another extension, and if the winter is not more here they hope to make still another extension in the spring.

So the advance toward the five-cent fare goes on.

The Case Against Baxter

He Is Running as an Alleged Republican Candidate for the Mayor's Chair

Representative Henry L. Shattuck is a liberal, progressive Republican, who is one of the coming public leaders of the State. As presiding officer at a public meeting in the Phillips School, West End, he put the case against Mr. Charles S. Baxter, running as an alleged Republican candidate for Mayor, in nutshell:

It is a great pleasure to appear at this gathering of my friends and neighbors in my home district in advocacy of the election of Hon. John R. Murphy of Charlestown as our next Mayor.

Nominations are made through signatures on nomination papers. There are no party nominations; there are no party designations; there are no party designations on the ballot; and no question of party loyalty or of party principles is involved. Any candidate who appeals to you on partisan grounds is false to the principle of nonpartisanship on which our city government is based. Under these conditions, the candidate will make the best Mayor?—that is the sole question.

"Rubbing It In"

The Petition for the Impeachment of Judge Pierce Appears to Serve No Useful Purpose

The Boston American thinks very little of the petition for the impeachment of Judge Pierce. He is an old and a sick man and he and his family have already had plenty of unpleasant publicity. The jury which will try him on his indictment will determine whether or not he is guilty. If it is proper to impeach him the petition can be filed when the Legislature convenes.

This appears to serve no useful purpose except that of "rubbing in" a man who may not be at all guilty of the charge made against him. A little bit of common sense and ordinary humanity would be very helpful to a great many people in the community. A man can sometimes pay too high a price for notoriety.

With the Boston Elevated was equally tender. While Mayor of Boston, Curley went before the Public Commission investigating the affairs of the Elevated and publicly told them that the people of Boston were cheating the Boston Elevated out of $2,000,000 a year. He said that the people of Boston were being cheated out of $2,000,000 a year, and he demanded that instead of being given transfer tickets they be herded into areas like cattle coming in for slaughter from the West, so that they might not cheat the Elevated. This is what he called body transfers. He told the same Commission that the Boston Elevated ought to be relieved of its burdens because the people were demanding more and more service of the Elevated and he demanded that the Elevated ought to be relieved of its taxes or to be allowed to charge a higher fare. He said, when

Our automobile editor makes what seems to be a wise suggestion, namely, that the State Armory on Commonwealth avenue be utilized as a place where licenses may be obtained for cars. It is already used for the issuance of licenses to automobile operators and our editor says that it will work greatly for the convenience of automobile owners if they can get their licenses and their registration in the same place. This might offset some of the inconvenience of removing the automobile department from the State House to the Commonwealth Pier.

Terrible Sight

It was terrible to stand there in the streaming sunshine and see thirty little Fordis drive up in the curb, and watch the boys pile out and get out their guns and see the heroin so they could have a "snow party"—just for fun.

They burned the American universities—students have been arrested in the past three months for carrying morphine to their fellow students.

Not seven weeks ago the American consul in a great western city asked the Chinese consul:

They have fought two wars to keep opium out of their country. They've read what the Chinese were saying to the Chinese people. They saw it eating away hope and ambition and lust and life and health, cruel, malignant cancer and they refused themselves and declared against it. They burned their opium pipes and destroyed millions of dollars worth of opium. They closed their streets—but that was not enough. They had to take up arms and fight. They had to fight to stop the curse of opium out of their own country.

Now, how long is that they had

WORK AND CHARITY.

Have you noticed that self-respecting persons would prefer a chance to help the hungry—rather than to have things thrust at them as a matter of charity.

If you were in a position of need you would want opportunity, self-respect.

Give regardless, with no commensurate return in the way of labor or gain, to the deserving and needy citizens.

Why peralyze by your charity?

There are a lot of kind-hearted folk who have a wrong idea of kind-ness. They start out to do charity work.

In a great and glorious spirit of open-heartedness they do not use judgment as to what is payable for work to earn what they are given.

When an able-bodied man can work he would rather do something to support himself than to be dependent on the charity food which is handed out gratuitously by individuals or organizations.

Common sense comes in and says: "If you give charity work that enables these people to give a return for what is received."
